

Bright is the new black

Two highly requested variants of wire are bright stainless and cold drawn carbon steel. After a dedicated focus on development, we are proud to say that we can now offer both.

Curious about what we can do for you?
Get in touch! Our Research & Development department is constantly on its toes and ready to take on new challenges.

Suzuki Garphyttan

A wire to rely on

In addition to its stability and reliability, our steel wire stands for new possibilities. It can be combined in a range of different materials and shapes, and provided with different properties, conditions and surfaces.

Together with us, you can create a winning combination, for almost any application or industry. Challenge us!

Learn more about our products at suzuki-garphyttan.com/wire-products

We make it stronger

Discover our selection of wire types, tailor-made for different industry applications.

Springs

Cutting & grinding

Filters & screens

Tools & equipment

Construction parts

Fixing & fastening